

The Daily Courant.

Monday, December 2. 1706.

London, December 2.

HAVING in one of our former made mention of a Treaty that has been some time in Agitation for a provisional Partition of the upper (or Spanish) Gelderland, between the King of Prussia and the States General, whose Forces are in possession of that Province, we shall now give some Authentick Pieces that will fully inform the Publick of that Affair.

THE following Propositions were made to the States Deputies by M. de Schmettau and Dankelman, in a Conference, the 4th of August 1706.

1. His Majesty the King of Prussia desires their High Mightinesses the States General, to pass a Resolution upon the Memorials presented to their High Mightinesses the 3d and 26th of July past by Baron Schmettau his Minister, touching the Affair of Neufchatel, to the End his Majesty may find the Effect of the Assistance promis'd him by the Treaties, conformably to what Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain does on Her Part in the said Affair. His Majesty leaves to the good Pleasure of their High Mightinesses the manner in which they shall think fit to give the said Assistance; but he is perswaded, and upon good Grounds, that the sending a Minister expressly, under what Character soever, provided he be furnish'd with credential Letters from their High Mightinesses, would have the most Effect: That Person might likewise be useful among the Swiss Cantons in the present Juncture of things there, with regard to the Affairs of Italy.

As to the Accommodation by a provisional Partition of the upper Gelderland, now in possession of the Forces of the King and of their High Mightinesses, his Majesty is desirous to know whether they are dispos'd on their Part to finish the Negotiation that is on Foot and as good as brought to a Conclusion. That Accommodation being mutually the Interest of the King and of the States, and even necessary for preventing Disputes and Inconveniences, his Majesty is the more dispos'd to it on a Foot of Equity, and believes that the said Accommodation prepared already by the Proposals that have been made on both sides some time ago, might be terminated, if the States would, without more Delay. While that Accommodation is deferr'd, the King promises himself from the Enquiry of their High Mightinesses, that they will give such Order that his Majesty may not be disturb'd in his Part of the said Country which he possesses by as good a Title as the States do theirs; his Majesty having given like Order to the Regency of Cleves, and to his Governour of the Fortrefs of Gelder, with respect to the rest of the said Country possess'd by their High Mightinesses.

' Upon which Propositions the States having deliberated, in their Assembly the 9th of September, pass'd the following Resolution.

TIS thought fit and resolv'd, that as to the first Proposition, Riboulet shall be commission'd, as he is by these presents, to go to Switzerland and Neufchatel, to promote on the part of their High Mightinesses the Interests of his Majesty the King of Prussia; and that the said Riboulet shall be allow'd, as he is by these presents, four Guilders a Day; and shall be furnish'd with necessary credential Letters. That as to the other Point, the following Proposal of a Partition of the Revenues of the upper Gelderland shall be deliver'd to Baron Schmettau, and an Answer to them desir'd.

1. That the Partition be provisional, only for the time the War shall last, and without prejudicing the Rights of any other Person.

2. That the King of Prussia shall receive the Revenues of the Town and Bailiwick of Gelder, of the Town and Bailiwick of Stralen, of the Town and Bailiwick of Wachendonek, and of the Village of Hinsbeeck; according to their present Variation.

3. That his Majesty shall not meddle with the Revenues of the rest of upper Gelderland.

4. That upon a general Summoning in of Carps, Pioneers, and the like, for the Service of the Army which shall act on the Maese or in Brabant against the common Enemy, his Majesty shall oblige the foresaid Places and Districts to furnish their usual Contingents.

5. That the said Places and Districts shall pay yearly at 4 equal Terms to the Receiver General of upper Gelderland residing at Ruremonde, their usual Portion of the Annual Imposts and Interest with which the upper Gelderland is charg'd, on Account of 24000 Guilders that is to be pay'd yearly by the whole upper Gelderland, for discharging the Interest of a Capital Sum of 540000 Guilders lent (in the Year 1692 to the late King of Spain on his engaging the said upper Gelderland for paying the said Interests,) under the Guaranty of their High Mightinesses given the 19th of March of that Year, till such Time as the Capital it self shall be all paid off.

6. That the Sums charg'd upon the Demesnes of upper Gelderland, shall issue out of the respective Demesnes upon which they are at present levied, or on which they were levied during the Reign of the late King of Spain; and this shall be regulated according to the allow'd Accounts of the former Receivers.

The King of Prussia's Answer to this Proposal of the States, shall be found in our next.
